

GRIDIRON Gossip

Winning in an easy fashion at a football game was demonstrated Saturday when Yale took an inglorious fall out of Princeton. The game was won in the "pie" way, when Guernsey, fullback for Yale, punted to Tibbott, Tibbott tried to catch the punt, but it was low and struck him on the knee and bounded right into the hands of Way, who carried the ball 25 yards for a touchdown. But Shevlin seems to be a rabbit's foot for Yale and most anything may be expected, even the defeat of Harvard. Harvard only won from Princeton by the score of 10 to 6. Yale beat the Tiger 13 to 7. Thus it seems the Bulldog has made a better showing than Harvard against the New Jersey team. The unheralded Guernsey's toe defeated the remarkable Tibbott, the same way that Shiverick of Cornell, a scrub, outkicked the great Mahan.

Minnesota defeated the Chicago team 20 to 7 on a field covered with snow. The Gophers had the game all their way during the contest.

Yale, with one of its worst years, only drew 60,000 spectators Saturday afternoon. Probably it is a good thing for mother earth that Yale has a losing team these years. Should she produce a winning team next year it is reasonable to assume that the crust upon which the Yale bowl is built will have to be reinforced from the Orient. Steel is selling too high now, so best thing for Yale to do is to lose most of its games next year.

The Cornell game with Washington and Lee at Ithaca Saturday was one Barrett after another. There were two Captain Barretts on the field, each team boasting of one. Altogether there were 61 points made in the game. Of these Charles Barrett made 34 for Cornell and John Barrett 12 for Washington.

Lee. During the first half of this game the Cornell bunch played ragged ball and fumbles were the direct cause of all of Wash-Lee's touchdowns. In the second half the Ithacans pulled together and swamped the Virginians. The final score stood 40 to 21.

Michigan and Pennsylvania played 60 minutes of football Saturday at Philadelphia, neither side scoring. The Michigan clan, determined to win the last game of the season, went to Ann Arbor a sorry lot, but rejoicing that they had not met a defeat. Pennsylvania wished to show Michigan up for past performances, but was unable to cross the Wolverine goal. It has been denied by Fielding Yost that he is going to coach Yale next year. He claims that he will stay at Michigan, and that when he leaves the Ann Arbor school he will quit coaching.

Bethany, the school noted for producing fullbacks, is now convinced that it has completed the polling of Elder, and that he is ready to be picked up by some larger school. In Saturday's game against East Liverpool, Elder made five touchdowns. Probably the Bethany players have ingrown epidermis plates on their pedal digits, for out of ten touchdowns not one goal from touchdown was kicked. This is some average. But what cares Bethany for try at goal when they can make 69 points to their opponent's none in the thick of the game?

As was expected Pitt defeated Carnegie Tech. Carnegie Tech played hard to win, but the Pitt players have too much material and experience for the Pits, and the Skibo lads went to defeat 28 to 0.

Harvard scrubs defeated the Brown team that won from Yale by the score of 16 to 7. Pollard, a negro, left half for Brown, was the star of the losing team, although at times he made some bad fumbles. Mahan and other regular players were watching the Bulldogs demolish the Tiger before 60,000 people. But one regular was in the lineup against the Bruinians, and this showing seems to forecast Yale's defeat at the hands of Harvard.

Charles Brickley, former Harvard star, seems to think that Harvard has already won the game against Yale, with Mahan doing all the kicking. He says that Yale has no kicker to compare with the mighty Eddie. It may not be necessary for the Bulldogs to resort to kicking, but if it is forced to boot the oval, the New Haven lads might take a chance on Guernsey, who kicked the Yale tribe to victory against Princeton Saturday.

Australian Miners Going to the Wars

MELBOURNE, Australia, Nov. 15.—The Miners' Unit which the Commonwealth government recently offered to raise, equip and send to the front is now in progress of formation. It will be composed of three companies enrolled in districts in Australia devoted to mining, and thus probably New South Wales and Queensland will supply one, West Australia another and the three other states the third. The total strength of the force will be about 1,000 men.

The officers of the unit are all to be drawn from the mining specialists in the Commonwealth. There will be a headquarters staff and to this a few geologists will be attached. New Zealand is also making a departure in recruiting a corps of skilled miners and miners' assistants.

ADDRESSES BY EDUCATORS.
President Joseph Roster of the Fairmont State Normal School will deliver an address at the formal opening of the Clay district High school of Harrison county on Tuesday, November 23. State Superintendent of Schools Morris P. Shawkey, of Charleston, will also deliver an address at the opening exercises.

MANY STATUES OF LINCOLN IN RUSSIA

American Emancipation Inspired Students Years Ago.

(By Associated Press.)
PETROGRAD, Nov. 15.—A full-length statue of Lincoln, with an interesting history, has been presented to the Rev. Franklin Gaylord, head of the Russian Young Men's Christian Association's work.

The story of the statue is this: Among Mr. Gaylord's callers the other day was Senator Anatole Fedorovich Konl, a member of the Imperial Council, as well as the Senate, who is just celebrating the 50th anniversary of his public service. He is a staunch friend of the Y. M. C. A., and Mr. Gaylord was one of those asked to speak at the celebration of his anniversary.

It seems that the conversation between the two men turned on Lincoln, and the next day, to his surprise, Mr. Gaylord received the Lincoln figure from Senator Konl with a polite note requesting its acceptance as a token of friendship. As a student in 1865, Senator Konl bought the statue and had given it a place of honor in his home for 50 years.

During the Senator's student days Lincoln was immensely popular with the progressive youth of Russia, because Lincoln had followed the Emperor Alexander II. as an emancipator. Many of these statues, which were well executed in hard, polished plaster, three-quarter size, were sold among Russian students, and doubtless here and there in the homes of some of the old families in Russia, similar evidence of tribute to Lincoln may be found.

Dr. W. C. Q. Wilson is Dead at Mannington

MANNINGTON, Nov. 15.—Dr. W. C. Q. Wilson died at his home on Water street Saturday at 8:45 o'clock following an illness of paralysis extending over a period of more than two years. Dr. Wilson has been a resident of Mannington for about thirty-five years. He came to that city from Deep Valley, Pa. During his residence here he had followed the practice of his profession and was prominently identified with the business interests of the community, having been one of the organizers of the Exchange Bank in 1892. The deceased was a member of the Baptist church and the Masonic order. He is survived by his wife, one son, Charles, and two daughters, Miss Grace and Mrs. Anna Eardly, all residents of this city. The funeral was held from the family home on Water street Monday, November 15, at 2 p. m. Interment in the Mannington cemetery.

Joy is orking on An Anrship Motor

Henry B. Joy, president of Packard Motor Car Company, Detroit, was elected a member of the board of governors of the Aero Club of America at a meeting held in New York last week. His acceptance of this offer is in line with Mr. Joy's other activities in support of national preparedness for defense against war.

The Aero Club is seeking to apply the lessons taught by the great war in Europe, and to impress upon the Government at Washington the importance of providing adequate aerial fleets for military purposes in the United States.

Sugar One Thing Plenty in Germany

BERLIN, Nov. 15.—More sugar is produced in Germany each year than it can consume. Last year's crop of sugar-beets was unusually large, and the present crop is said to promise well, but the price of sugar has nevertheless increased more than 25 per cent. In connection with this state of affairs, a letter to the Lokal Anzeiger declares that the country's largest sugar refinery, has this year, declared a dividend of twenty per cent, against ten last year.

To Make War Unpopular.
As long as war is regarded as wicked it will always have its fascinations. When it is looked upon as vulgar, it will cease to be popular.—Oscar Wilde.

Only Work Brings Success.
Those who are prone to consider themselves exempt from hard work have never been known to obtain the success which real people covet. You have to keep working every minute to get anywhere. Just as soon as you stop the other fellow is bound to go ahead.
